welcome to Sydney

Sydney, one of the world's most liveable cities

Home to the iconic Opera House and Harbour Bridge, Sydney is one of the world's most attractive cities for international visitors. Ranked as one of the world's most liveable cities, Sydney is the gateway to New South Wales. Our world-class attractions, golden beaches, pristine national parks and unique cultural experiences will make study in Sydney an experience unlike any other.

Culture

Australia prides itself on being the country of the 'fair go'. This means we value fairness and common courtesies. Waiting patiently for your turn in a queue and using 'please' and 'thank you' will go a long way with most Australians. Another popular Australian expression is 'no worries' because Australians generally are a pretty laid back people. We have a cheeky sense of humour and a relaxed attitude about most things in life. However, there is one thing that nearly all Australians are extremely passionate about – sport. If you talk to an Aussie about their favourite sport you could make a friend for life. Along with a thriving arts scene, beachside lifestyle, and cosmopolitan dining experiences, live sporting events are a large part of life in Sydney.

Climate

Known for its blue skies and sunshine, Sydney has a mild and pleasant climate. Our mid-winter temperatures rarely fall below 10°C (50°F) while mid-summer temperatures can occasionally reach 36°C (97°F) with 22°C (72°F) the average.

Cost of living and working in Sydney

The cost of living in Sydney really depends on the lifestyle you lead. If you like extravagance you might spend a little more on luxuries, but for the more modest budget there are many free and low cost activities to enjoy in Sydney. As an outdoor city, Sydney has countless beaches, national parks, and sporting fields to keep you entertained without spending a cent. The cost of living in Sydney compares with many European and Asian cities.

As an international student you are able to work in Australia for up to 40 hours per fortnight (two week period), with unlimited hours during ICMS vacation periods. ICMS international students completing their industry training placement are eligible to work full time during this training period as the work placement is a subject within their degree and does not have the same restrictions. For more information on your visa privileges, visit www.border.gov.au

Getting around

ICMS is located 17 minutes by fast ferry from the city of Sydney. The public transport system in Sydney includes ferries, trains and buses. Trains operate regularly in the city and tickets can be purchased from booths or machines at railway stations. The closest railway station to Manly is at North Sydney, accessible by bus. The easiest way to get around on public transport, however, is to purchase an Opal card (opal.com.au). This covers travel on combined forms of transport around Sydney, including trains, ferries and buses. No matter how much you travel, you won't pay more than $60 per week using an Opal card.

your new home

The International College of Management, Sydney (ICMS) is an award-winning higher education institution located in Northern Beaches Council, NSW, outside Sydney, Australia. The college, founded in 1996, is a leader in career-focused, quality education where almost 90% of graduates are employed in their field before graduation. The campus overlooks Manly Beach, recently rated by travel website Trip Advisor as the best beach in Australia.

ICMS offers a wide range of university-level undergraduate and postgraduate degrees and courses, including bachelor degrees in business management, hospitality management, events management, sports management, international tourism, property, business management (fashion and global brand management), business management (accounting).

Industry training is key to the success of ICMS students, with work placements built into each degree of study. ICMS enjoys a strong relationship with over 1000 industry partners, and has consistently, with the support of these partners, awarded multiple high value scholarships as part of the ICMS Scholarships Program. The college prides itself on its cultural diversity with a student body representing more than 55 nationalities, reflecting the international reach of ICMS alumni as they become leaders in the careers they choose to pursue.

gateway to SUCCESS

At ICMS we are connected – with industry and with each other. Our approach to work-integrated learning, emphasis on professionalism and our comprehensive industry training program will take your education beyond the classroom and provide the foundations of a successful career. Our college is a community of aspiring professionals, and it is our mission to make that professional transition a smooth one. This is done by working closely with you throughout your degree. At ICMS your student experience will be unique. You'll earn your qualification in a friendly, multicultural environment at one of the world's most stunning campus locations.

Quality teaching and learning experience

At ICMS you learn directly from industry experts. Our teaching staff are passionate educators with extensive industry experience. They are committed to the teaching and learning of our students, delivering a challenging, engaging and cutting-edge education. At ICMS you will experience our next generation education. We believe in a curriculum that prepares you for professional success, blending a thorough understanding of theoretical principles with innovations in hands-on, practical education. This is supported with industry training and our practical learning environments such as the ICMS Grand Dining Room, our collaborative student work spaces, library, and computer and mobile technology.

Unique industry training program

At ICMS we believe that the best learning experience combines practical 'real-world' work with a strong academic foundation. All our undergraduate degrees include a work placement component called industry training. At ICMS you will work within your industry for up to nine months giving you a distinct edge over other graduates. Our industry training program will prepare you for your future career in your chosen field of study.

Incredible student experience at ICMS

ICMS is not just a college, it is a community. At ICMS you will have the opportunity to immerse yourself in all aspects of student life. You will find student-led clubs and societies, sporting teams and an enviable social and events calendar. We organise activities such as surfing trips, skiing trips and theatre visits to help students take advantage of everything Manly, Sydney and Australia have to offer. Like any good community, we also care about your emotional wellbeing. Our academic and personal support services are available to you to ensure that your student experience truly is incredible.

Emphasis on professionalism

Our dedication to professionalism begins when you first walk on campus. As management specialists we deliver and expect high standards of professionalism across our ICMS community. As an ICMS student you will dress in business attire when you come to class. Impressions are important in the workforce and this is one of several ways that we train you for your management career. Our industry partners have told us that our students and graduates stand out from the crowd because of their professional behaviour and presentation. It's all part of preparing you for your future career.

An international education

- Diverse multicultural learning environment

At ICMS we will connect you with the world. We are a global college with international students and graduates. When you study at ICMS you are part of a diverse multicultural learning environment and you will have opportunities to develop an extensive network of friends and contacts with classmates from more than 55 countries. This adds to the global context of your education, preparing you for your career in an increasingly international workforce.

- International study opportunities

If you love travel, our exchange programs can send you overseas to study at one of our partner institutions. Your overseas study can be fully accredited to your ICMS degree. Our exchange programs allow you to study at both ICMS and a selected partner institution. We have many partner institutions in countries in Europe and America. For more information please go to www.icms.edu.au

Global alumni community

Successful careers start at ICMS. There are thousands of ICMS graduates working around the world, many working in impressive roles at international organisations. As an ICMS graduate, you will have access to an online community of alumni with international opportunities to network and form professional partnerships.

your backyard

It would be hard to find a college in a more spectacular location than ICMS. To the north of the College, there are spectacular views of the Pacific Ocean stretching to the New South Wales Central Coast. To the south, you can see sweeping views of Sydney Harbour.

The historic site of the ICMS main campus is surrounded by 20 hectares of parklands and is a short walk to Manly beaches, cafés, shops, restaurants and night life.

ICMS is also close enough to the city – 17 minutes by fast ferry – for visits to art galleries, museums, the best city shops, the historic Rocks area, and Sydney's famous Opera House.

Getting to ICMS

Regular transport services to ICMS are available via Sydney ferries, buses and taxis.

On foot

ICMS is a short stroll from the centre of Manly. After class, wander to the beach and study with sand between your toes.

By bus

ICMS runs a free regular shuttle bus service during teaching weeks for ICMS students from the main Manly precinct up to our campus.

Sydney buses operate regularly around Manly and can transport you to regions across Sydney. For travel maps and timetables visit the Sydney Buses website.

By car

Limited free parking is available on campus for our ICMS students and visitors.

By ferry

The most scenic way to travel to ICMS is by ferry. Fast ferries travel between Manly and Circular Quay in the CBD and take just 17 minutes each way. Or you can take a little more time to enjoy the view. The normal ferry service leaves approximately every half hour from Circular Quay (Wharf 3) or Manly and takes 30 minutes. Visit the Manly Fast Ferry and Transport NSW websites for more information.

But this is Manly, you could travel to ICMS by bike, skateboard, roller skates or scooter. You won't look out of place as you roll along the palm lined Manly esplanade.

BEACH LOVERS ARE SPOILED FOR CHOICE WHEN IT COMES TO BEAUTIFUL, TOP-RATED BEACHES WITHIN WALKING DISTANCE OF ICMS.

9 beaches near you

Surfing, snorkelling, shell seeking and picnicking on the beach are just a few of the leisure activities available to ICMS students thanks to the nine beaches right on their doorstep. Manly Beach itself was rated fourth best beach in Australia in the 2017 TripAdvisor Traveller's Choice Awards, with Shelly Beach coming in at #20.

So pack your sunscreen, swimming costumes, snorkel and surfboards and get exploring!

Shelly beach: This is the closest beach to the ICMS campus and is located in Manly, forming part of Cabbage Tree Bay, a protected marine reserve which lies adjacent to North Head and Fairy Bower. Scuba divers and snorkelers in particular love this beach thanks to the large variety of marine life which can be seen in relatively shallow water.

Laze on the beach or take a hike around the track that hugs the headland, offering spectacular views of North Head and the Northern Beaches. Pack a picnic and enjoy the facilities available, or enjoy a meal at the beachside restaurant.

Manly Beach: Trip Advisor claims Manly Beach to be the best in Australia (2018). With easy access from Sydney, some of the best surfing waves in the world and lifeguards on duty for bathers, Manly Beach is a popular spot among ICMS students.

Quarantine Beach: Named after the old Quarantine Station, which operated from 1828-1984, Quarantine Beach was the first port of call for all quarantined ships and their passengers. Today it is part of the Sydney Harbour National Park. Its buildings are used for conferences and guided tours are conducted at the Station.

The beach is 200m long, faces northwest into North Harbour, and is hemmed in by rocks at each end, together with a seawall and wharf at the southern end. Quarantine Beach is located on the harbour side of Manly, and is nestled within the boundaries of Q Station. It is just a short drive from Manly Wharf or also reachable via a pleasant and scenic walk. Keep your eyes peeled for a glimpse of Manly's local fairy penguins.

Manly Cove Beach: Located on the "ferry side" of Manly, this awesome beach is perfect for a chilled day out with friends. There are no waves, plenty of grassy areas and a shark net pool. Penguins often arrive in the evenings, a truly unique and magical sight to behold.

Tall trees provide shade on hot summer days and there is a promenade for strolling. Picnic and ablution facilities are also available.

Little Manly Beach: Little Manly Beach is one of Sydney's best kept secrets. Just a short walk from Manly Cove, the calm waters and quieter vibe offers an alternative to the busy Manly beach.

There is a beach kiosk nearby, and the beach offers stunning harbour views and picnic spots. The beach is also a popular diving spot, with a boat ramp and easy access to the clear waters.

Collins Flat Beach: With its scenic harbour views, Collins Flat Beach, nestled between North Head and Little Manly Cove, is an idyllic spot for a romantic picnic.

Whether you're swimming in the calm waters or nibbling on gourmet snacks from a hamper for two, this hidden beach, with a breathtaking view across The Heads, feels a world away from the hustle and bustle of the city.

With Q Station just a short drive away, you could even end off your romantic day out with an overnight stay at this beautifully restored heritage accommodation.

Store Beach: Located just inland from the old Quarantine Station, this sheltered beach is only accessible by water. This wonderfully secluded beach will make you feel like you're on a remote island in North Queensland.

Fairlight Beach: This is another one of those quiet little tucked-away beaches on Sydney harbour where you can usually get away from the crowds on a hot summer's day.

The beach has amazing views right out to Sydney Heads, some good snorkelling, a sheltered swimming pool, and grass to lounge about on and munch your picnic goodies. There is some shade provided by a few trees, especially later on in the day when the sun is in the west.

Freshwater Beach: A stunning beach wedged between two headlands, Freshwater is a short walk north from Manly and is famous as the spot where surfing was first introduced to Australia.

The north headland provides excellent protection from the summer northeaster, and waves are fairly consistent right along the beach thanks to reliable sandbanks. An eight lane, 50 metre saltwater pool at the north end is a favourite with lap swimmers.

Freshwater's unique claim to fame is that this is where surfboard riding was popularised in Australia by Hawaiian 'Duke' Kahanamoku. Duke famously carved a board from a piece of local timber and demonstrated surfing for an enthralled crowd on 15 January 1915. A life-size statue of Duke Kahanamoku on the northern headland commemorates the historic day, and the board has been kept on display in the Freshwater Surf Life Saving Club since 1952.

Freshwater is part of the Manly-Freshwater National and World Surfing Reserve that recognises the historical, cultural, and environmental values of famous surfing beaches.

A large group of diverse students, including men and women of various ethnicities, are posed together outdoors. They are dressed in formal attire, such as suits, blouses, and dresses. The background features a large, light-colored building with arched windows and several flags flying. The scene is set in a lush, green environment with trees and bushes.

ICMS is not just a college, it is a community. With over 1,500 students from more than 55 countries, our student population is smaller than most universities. This is the perfect environment for meeting new people and forming lifelong friendships and professional partnerships.

meet your predecessors

Successful careers start at ICMS. As an ICMS graduate you will join thousands of your predecessors who have found career success working in Australia and around the world.

ICMS graduates continue to be part of our community, visiting our students on campus and sharing their experiences of life in industry. As an ICMS graduate, you will be part of an international network of professional and personal contacts, connected online with a shared passion for service management and professional success. Catch up with former classmates, find out more about upcoming reunions and keep up to date with the latest developments at ICMS when you graduate to our Global Alumni Community.

We are very proud of the achievements of our ICMS graduates. Their ICMS experience and determined ambition have helped them secure impressive roles in premium international organisations. It is time to meet your predecessors...

LEADING GLOBAL RESEARCH COMPANY RANKS ICMS NUMBER ONE IN AUSTRALIA FOR GRADUATE EMPLOYABILITY IN EVENTS AND HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS *

International College of Management, Sydney (ICMS) has been ranked number one in Australia in a survey that examined the event management and hospitality management sector.

The 2017 survey, commissioned by ICMS and undertaken by the Kantar Group (Kantar Millward Brown), a world leading research, data and insights company, ranked ICMS number one in Australia for Event Management and Hospitality Management – based on graduate employability.

The survey asked leading industry brands to rank the employability of graduates from Australian higher education Institutions offering Event Management or Hospitality Management. ICMS came out on top with 89% of those surveyed seriously considering ICMS when hiring an Event Management or Hospitality Management graduate.

This means that that ICMS students can be confident of finding employment after graduation.

"In today's current economic climate, we find the results of this survey are an enormous credit to our institution," ICMS Deputy Vice Chancellor, Professor Chris Auld said.

"We are extremely proud of the calibre of students passing through ICMS, all of whom are put through a rigorous academic program, supported by exceptional staff. The key, though, is that it is this strong theoretical training combined with our emphasis on industry training that has led to us being recognised as number one in career preparation for our students, and graduating quality candidates who will add value to any company in which they are employed."

ICMS has relationships with leading industry brands and work integrated learning is a part of every degree offered. This means that ICMS students are already experienced in their relevant fields before they graduate.

The survey also indicated that the ICMS Bachelor of Event Management and Bachelor of Hospitality Management programs ranked number one for "offering a professional learning environment for students (83%), providing the most professional students (83%) and creating work ready students (85%)".

"The Kantar Group survey supports our view that ICMS hospitality management and event management graduates are highly professional and competent and we are incredibly proud of this fact," Professor Auld said.

"This is something we have methodically and consciously worked towards, and it is rewarding to have this outcome recognised. We are proud that our students are the preferred candidates in job interviews in the events and hospitality industries."

*Event Management and Hospitality Management Research, commissioned by ICMS and prepared and conducted by the Kantar Group (Kantar Millward Brown) 18 September 2017 - based on a survey of employer industry partners (Leading brands within Australia) with 46 respondents from a list of 140. Students' employment prospects will vary based on individual performance and results.  Leading industry brand partners of ICMS

BACHELOR OF BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

ICMS.EDU.AU/BUSINESS-MANAGEMENT

Business management professionals are the people who get things done. They oversee the performance of teams and operations to maximise a company's potential. Business management professionals also work in not-for-profit organisations to improve performance outcomes. To achieve this they need to be skilled in all areas of business including sales and marketing, accounting and finance, human resources, communication and negotiation, legal issues and leadership. Every organisation in every industry requires management professionals. This makes Business Management one of the most versatile and rewarding careers available to you.

The Bachelor of Business Management is highly regarded by the professional services industry. Your Business Management degree at ICMS is a well-rounded qualification with opportunities for in-depth study in a professional services sector of your choice. Your core subjects are supplemented with business and specialist industry electives in a range of study areas. Choose all your electives from one specialist major area to have a specialisation named on your academic transcript.

DEGREE STRUCTURE

SUBJECT SNAPSHOT

Career Planning and Strategy

Successful and satisfying careers don't just happen. Learn the concepts, techniques, tools and processes to plan and implement the career you want. With an emphasis on linking theoretical and empirical research with practical lifelong skill development, you will learn the best career management strategies for your work style, interests and personality.

Strategic Management

Learn how to approach complex and strategic business challenges from cross-functional and multi-dimensional perspectives. You will learn how to analyse a firm's internal resources and capabilities along with how to examine the various components of a business' external industry and macro-environments. Once you can do this, you'll know how to develop appropriate strategies with which to pursue sustainable competitive advantage in domestic and international markets.

Consumer Behaviour

Success in the marketplace depends on a company's ability to attract, satisfy and retain its customers. To grow, the business must reinvent itself in the eyes of the consumer, adapting quickly and flexibly to changing needs and circumstances. Understanding what products and product attributes customers currently desire, and what they may desire due to emerging social trends, keeps businesses at the leading edge of consumer behaviour and product research. Learn the skills to understand consumers as buyers so you can manage product portfolios efficiently.

WITH SUBJECTS SPECIALISING IN

You can choose to specialise in one of three highly sought after areas of industry. Your specialisation will appear on your academic transcript when you graduate. Alternatively, you can choose to study a range of subjects across the spectrum of business electives.

Entrepreneurship

Entrepreneurs are made, not born. You can develop the tools and the skills to become an economic innovator, to think creatively, and to balance opportunity against risk. In the Entrepreneurship specialisation you will learn to identify and exploit business opportunities and manage business growth. You will learn how to build, promote, and manage your own businesses by understanding the processes used by start-ups and rapid growth small firms as well as large corporations and non-profits.

Marketing and New Media Management

As groups share, sell and swap goods and information via the digital world, there are new opportunities and challenges for marketers. New media has seen a power shift in the way consumers and retailers relate. With a greater public voice, consumers are taking a more active role in their purchase decisions. Any business involved in marketing requires the tools, tactics, strategies, and processes needed to create, track, and manage new media. Learn to make the technology work for you with integrated traditional and digital marketing communication strategies.

Retail Marketing

Retail marketing is a dynamic business. Technological, economic and social change influences consumer behaviour. Retail marketers must continually employ new tactics and strategies to secure sales and generate consumer loyalty. Retail Marketing at ICMS has been developed in partnership with leading industry professionals. It examines consumer behaviour, retail technology, advertising, e-commerce, social media, buying and logistics, and visual merchandising. Retail growth is critical to the global economy, and to the sustainability of every retail business. Retail marketing is ideal for careers in marketing, merchandising, store management and buying.

YOUR FUTURE

At ICMS we train you to be a leader in business management. When you graduate with a Bachelor of Business Management you will have adaptive capabilities industry experience, and in-depth knowledge of business management principles in practice. This will see you ready for a career that spans industries and continents. You can work in a multinational company locally or take your new found skills and experience around the world.

Positions include:

- Business Analyst
- Business Development Manager
- Entrepreneur
- Management Consultant
- Marketing Manager
- Retail Account Manager
- Sales Representative

LinkedIn™

James Brady, Australia
Business Management Graduate, 2013
Account Executive, LinkedIn

What is your current role? Outline your professional experience.

I am an Account Executive for LinkedIn. I drive new business sales by partnering closely with small businesses to help them use LinkedIn strategically to source and attract the best talent to their organisation. Prior to LinkedIn I worked in the Domestic Development department for ICMS part time whilst studying my degree.

What career achievements are you especially proud of?

My biggest career highlight so far was joining LinkedIn, the world's largest professional network, after graduating. I was selected for the role based on my ICMS qualification and experience working in the Development Team for the College. At LinkedIn, I have been able to successfully support the business with my knowledge and skills gained at ICMS, and was promoted into an Account Executive role.

How has your ICMS degree contributed to you achieving your professional goals?

My ICMS degree gave me great foundations in business, preparing me both academically and professionally to succeed in the high performance world of consumer and enterprise technology. The lecturers' passion and real-world experience guided me to the path I wanted to take, and the extracurricular activities gave me the business leadership skills needed to thrive early in my career.

What were the major contributing factors to your decision to study at ICMS?

The main factors were the specialised subjects you can study while doing a general business degree. Also the opportunity to be a part of a community that takes preparing you for success seriously. The location and reputation didn't hurt either!

What were the highlights during your time at ICMS?

I was awarded a scholarship covering my first two years of tuition. I was also a Student Ambassador and led the Residential Assistant (RA) team as the Senior RA in my final term. By far the biggest highlight for me was working part time for the College for the majority of my time there – giving me real business experience before I had even graduated.

What advice would you give to someone considering study at ICMS?

Get involved as much as you can in everything on offer. ICMS gives you the opportunities not only to study a degree, but also to develop as a future business leader.

It takes more than just innovative designs to build a successful fashion brand. Experts in marketing, merchandising, logistics, sales, retailing and more, contribute to bringing a product from the runway to the racks of our favourite stores. You don't need to be the next Anna Wintour or Gianni Versace to make an impact though; if you're passionate about fashion, studying fashion and global brand management is the best way to learn about what fuels this fascinating, multi-trillion dollar industry.

SUBJECT SNAPSHOT

Introduction to the Fashion and Retail Industry

The aim of this subject is to provide students with an overview of the nature and scope of fashion retailing, and the elements required to develop and maintain a successful fashion brand strategy. You will identify and discuss the principles of merchandise management and fashion brand management in relation to strategy implementation.

Styling and Creative Direction

Learn how to build a clear creative vision and brand through photography, event, editorial and personal styling. By the end of this subject, you will understand the basics of the design process including basic textile cuts, fabrics and construction, as well as how to build client briefs and analyse fashion trends.

Fashion Planning and Buying

Increase your knowledge and understanding of working in fashion and trend orientated retail, such as clothing, accessories and homeware. You'll look at topics ranging from industry trends and global retail buying to product trend analysis and waste management.

YOUR FUTURE

From lifestyle blogging to Instagram, the way we engage with and consume fashion has changed and so must our marketing and retailing strategies. A new breed of professionals are required to help brands tell their story and present products to the right audience. Graduates with the latest skills in branding, digital and social media marketing, e-commerce, merchandising, public relations, retailing and event management are in high demand. When you graduate with a Bachelor of Business Management (Fashion and Global Brand Management), your industry experience and blend of practical management training will see you ready for a range of roles at both boutique labels or large multi-national companies.

Positions include:

- Brand Manager
- Visual Merchandiser
- Marketing Manager
- Fashion Buyer
- Digital Marketer
- Creative Director
- Retail Manager
- Stylist
- Event Manager

If you're thinking of joining the growing league of clever individuals who make up the $20 billion accounting industry in Australia, studying a business degree with an accounting focus will put you in a strong position to kick-start your career. Being good with numbers is only part of the equation; accountants also need to be able to interpret financial data to help inform business decisions and communicate their findings clearly and effectively.

SUBJECT SNAPSHOT

Accounting for Business

This subject aims to provide you with the accounting knowledge to understand the principles of accounting and how it relates to the internal and external decision making of an economic entity. It focuses on the development of an understanding of accounting generally, the fundamental accounting processes and issues, as well as critical, analytical and quantitative skills.

Financial Accounting I

This subject is designed specifically to provide you with an understanding of the role that accounting plays in various aspects of financial decision-making. You will learn how to summarise and present information within financial statements to aid the decision making of stakeholders.

Management Accounting

This subject will provide you with the operational information and skills relevant to planning, controlling and evaluating accounting information within an organisation. You will also examine various tools that support management decision-making.

YOUR FUTURE

In Australia alone, the accounting industry employs more than 115,000 people*. Opportunities exist in internal accounting teams, corporate advisory firms like KPMG and Ernst and Young, and for the entrepreneurially minded, there's the option to start your own practice. The Bachelor of Business Management (Accounting) will prepare you for a diverse range of roles thanks to the unique combination of business, management, accounting and industry experience.

The Bachelor of Event Management is your backstage pass to a professional business career in event management. From business events including meetings, exhibitions and conferences to weddings, festivals and fashion parades – a professional event manager can make any event look seamless.

SUBJECT SNAPSHOT

Production and Design

Event managers often have a flair for the creative. Production and Design is where you will harness that creativity to win over a real client and to develop the design and production elements of your event. Starting with promotion you will experiment with scriptwriting, voiceover, copyediting, and the social media campaigns needed to create a sought-after event. You'll sharpen your technical skills and learn production aspects like audio visual, lighting, sound and staging, room layouts and special effects. A field trip to a staging company will offer you an interactive experience in event staging.

Operations and Logistics

Site visits, event plans and a thorough working knowledge of event operations and logistics will keep you focused on running a smooth and stress-free event. We will take you on a back-of-house tour of an event venue to conduct your own site audit as you consider the logistics of a typical event. You will learn how to manage event operations taking into consideration project, labour, risk, financial, site and transport management issues that are all part of an event manager's job. By developing your own logistics manual for a simulated event and using industry software you will gain the skills you'll need to manage the logistics of any event.

Event Practicum

In your event practicum you have the opportunity to apply all your theoretical knowledge and practical skills to a real event with a real client. You'll work with your classmates to manage an event from conception through to execution and evaluation. You'll learn the practicalities of running an event like site and risk management and stakeholder management issues as well as budget management, time management and project management.

YOUR FUTURE

Event managers have the skills and expertise to make any event look easy. Composed under pressure, an extraordinary event manager seamlessly brings together all the key elements required to create an outstanding guest experience. At ICMS we are in the business of training extraordinary event managers.

Our graduates are experts in event management principles, are technically skilled, and have a working experience of the industry. Our Bachelor of Event Management graduates are trained to be professional leaders.

As your career develops, combining your knowledge and experience with a personal interest such as sport, business, arts or culture could lead to a wide range of new and fascinating career directions. Many of our graduates are working across the globe.

Positions include:

- Event Manager
- Event Producer
- Event Director

cievents.

Briony Baglin, Australia
Event Management Graduate, 2008
Event Director, cievents

What is your current role? Outline your professional experience.

I am an Event Director and look after large international incentives and conferences with a large team of people supporting me. In my role, I focus on development of our people, retaining incumbent clients and executing programs for cievents key client accounts.

I started at cievents more than four years ago as an Event Coordinator supporting a team of eight Event Managers and Directors. After working for cievents for 18 months, in July 2011, I was promoted to Event Manager and in June 2012, I moved into a Senior Event Manager role running larger programs and taking on international programs with larger teams working under me.

What career achievements are you especially proud of?

I operated an event in July 2014 in the position of 2IC for Flight Centre taking 3,350 delegates to Macau from all over the world. My role involved recruiting and managing all staff, inducting and training all staff and assisting the program director on all tasks. The event was a huge success. I organised flights, accommodation, food and beverage, boat and car transfers, registrations, pool parties, after parties, welcome night, half day conference and a gala awards ceremony – all in the space of 48 hours. Combine this with a language barrier, 3,500 fancy dress costumes, a delegate app, a team of 25 staff and a different time zone – it was exhausting but watching it all unfold was a super proud moment in my career.

I also ran an event in April 2013 for the fashion label Ermenegildo Zegna, where 200 journalists and members of the press were brought to Australia from all over the world for their annual wool awards ceremony. We had a number of A list celebrities attend the awards and managed all logistics for the VIPs including chartering planes. This event was run on a four-week turn around with very tough clients (one based in Milan and the other in Japan). I am very proud of this event as it elevated my profile within cievents.

I have also won three outstanding achievement awards at cievents over the past one and a half years for my contributions to the company's growth and success.

How has your ICMS degree contributed to you achieving your professional goals?

My degree gives me credibility in the industry. It is a must-have in order to get a job at cievents so I can honestly say that without it I would not be where I am today. cievents respects the discipline of a degree qualification and the theoretical knowledge provides a significant head start when beginning in the industry in an entry level role. It has also helped me to move up more quickly within the company.

What were the major contributing factors to your decision to study at ICMS?

At the time I graduated from high school, there were very few respected degrees in event management. At a career day organised by my school, I found out about the ICMS Event Management degree. The degree structure and the qualification you receive were very appealing to me. I knew as soon as I graduated high school that I wanted to attend ICMS.

Tell us about your industry training placement

My experience at the Four Seasons Hotel Sydney was fantastic. I learnt so much about five star standards and discipline in the hospitality industry with regards to service, grooming and general day-to-day operations. I underwent a week-long extensive training induction program before beginning my banqueting role. This is where new starters meet management and learn about the standards in five star service in theory before practice. I stayed with the Four Seasons for just under two years after my industry placement finished. I enjoyed the position and loved working with the team there.

What were the highlights during your time at ICMS?

Industry experience was a highlight for me. I learnt most of my skills on-site at the Four Seasons during my nine months of training.

It was a brilliant experience where I met some amazing people and learnt everyday event management skills.

I also enjoyed the term five event. The practical side of the program gives you a more realistic experience managing and executing an event, which is transferable to any job after you graduate.

What advice would you give to someone considering study at ICMS?

Do your research and make sure the degree you want to study is the right one for you. Event Management is a team focused industry and it is very fast paced. It is important that you truly understand what the degree/industry entails and be 110% sure that you just can't live your life without being a part of it. Be prepared for incredibly long hours and some very hard work but be excited for the amazing travel, brilliant learning experiences and wonderful people you will meet along the way.

Working while studying

Jessica Ho, Australia
Hospitality Management Graduate, 2016
Corporate Sales Coordinator, Hyatt Regency Sydney

What is your current role, and how did you get there?

I am currently the Corporate Sales Coordinator at Hyatt Regency Sydney, also assisting with managing Hyatt Regency Sydney's corporate accounts. I assist with new business pitches and consumer facing marketing and events.

I started my nine month paid internship at Shangri-la Sydney in their fine dining restaurant, Altitude. I worked there for two years while studying at the same time.

I moved on to Park Hyatt Sydney as a food and beverage attendant where I was able to use my service skills learnt from my internship and from the Hospitality

Practical subjects at ICMS.

I was quickly promoted to Hostess, where I was the face of The Dining Room and was also responsible for promoting the restaurant to diners.

I was then headhunted by Pier One Sydney Harbour for the role of Food and Beverage Coordinator, responsible for promoting their restaurant and bar, and for the coordination of events such as those held on New Year's Eve and for corporate and private events. I also trained staff on food and beverage admin and operations.

What career achievements are you especially proud of?

Whilst at Pier One Sydney, I implemented SOPs (Standard Operating Procedures) for administration, sales and operational duties.

How has your ICMS degree contributed to you achieving your professional goals?

ICMS gave me a great overall understanding of hotel operations and admin from events, food and beverage, front office, rooms and revenue management. I started as a corporate sales coordinator with no rooms background; however, my degree helped me fill that gap.

What were the major contributing factors to your decision to study at ICMS?

The close proximity of the beach, the ability to stay on campus at an affordable cost, the support from lecturers and industry training to get you into the industry, and the practical experience that was part of the degree.

What were your highlights during your time at ICMS?

Being a Residential Assistant.

What lessons did you learn from your industry training?

I learnt to bring what I had learnt theoretically into practice, and the industry training enhanced my ability to think on my feet. Studying at a university that specialises in the hotel industry gave me a substantial advantage in understanding the industry from the inside.

What would be your advice to someone considering studying at ICMS?

Do not second guess the opportunity to study at ICMS. Employers look for students from ICMS as they have both practical knowledge and experience.

What is the best thing about working in your industry?

No two days are the same. There is always a challenge to overcome while maintaining the integrity of the hotel's brand and seamlessly making the customer's journey remarkable.

“ICMS lecturers know what they are talking about, and are happy to share that knowledge! I feel confident going into my career knowing that I have had the best start possible.”

ICMS is a five time winner of the NSW Tourism Award for Excellence in Tourism Education. Channel your adventurous spirit, business acumen and desire for travel into a rewarding career. As an international tourism professional you will be responsible for the management, promotion and marketing of destinations around the world.

SUBJECT SNAPSHOT

Destination Sales and Marketing

When marketing a destination you need to get inside the mind of the tourist and use this insight to make strategic decisions. In Destination Sales and Marketing you will study a range of topics from the psychology of purchase decisions to strategic marketing planning. You will review data from tourism case studies and consider factors such as positioning, branding, traditional and online marketing tools to identify and design your own sales and marketing initiatives.

Destination Management Issues

Whether it is political unrest, rising sea levels or increased development, there are many ways that the natural and built environments can be impacted by change. In Destination Management Issues, you will learn how to analyse these variables and consider the future sustainability of destinations and the tourism industry. You will learn about the concepts of crisis management and the appropriate strategies to assist a tourism organisation or destination in crisis. You will write a tourism journal article based on your research of a current issue of your choice.

Global Trends in Hospitality and Tourism

The physical, cultural and economic aspects of destinations can differ vastly across the globe. Global Trends in Hospitality and Tourism is a comprehensive examination of the similarities and differences between worldwide destinations. This will prepare you for a global career and also help you to understand the current and predicted trends in the international tourism market.

YOUR FUTURE

A career in international tourism can be as exotic and colourful as its destinations. Understanding what motivates tourists and meeting their needs can be both emotionally and financially rewarding. When you graduate with a Bachelor of International Tourism, your award-winning education and blend of industry experience and management training will turn your passion for travel into a successful career.

Many of our graduates are working across the globe and Australia in leading hotels and resorts, government organisations and travel companies.

During my time at ICMS I worked as a part time supervisor with Merlin Enterprises for companies such as Madame Tussauds, Sea Life and Legolands.

What career achievements are you especially proud of?

At Hamilton Island Enterprises I was nominated for an Eminence Award and received a Silver Award for teamwork. I was also the top salesperson and won many incentives for my high performance, even though I had limited sales experience at the time.

How has your ICMS degree contributed to you achieving your professional goals?

Connections are invaluable. I have made contacts through former students and lecturers, industry training and extra-curricular activities. The opportunity to be interviewed for the role at Hamilton Island was made possible through a connection made at ICMS. In addition to that, in all my working roles I have used skills developed at ICMS from business and tourism specialty subjects.

What were the major factors contributing to your decision to study at ICMS?

I wanted to study business as it covers a broad range of employment opportunities. I liked the idea of being able to study tourism with my business degree. ICMS was the only place that offered this mix.

Tell us about your industry training placement experience

My industry training experience at Swain Tours was invaluable. During my final two years at ICMS I continued to work casually with Swain Tours.

What were the highlights during your time at ICMS?

My exchange trimester at César Ritz College in Switzerland. It was an incredible experience to study in a new country and travel to new places on weekends. I have lifelong memories from this trip.

I was also awarded a full Academic Scholarship for my third year of study. My hard work was acknowledged and I appeared on the Dean's List twice.

Lastly, I worked for the Communications Team and Student Mentor Programs, which I loved.

What advice would you give to someone considering study at ICMS?

ICMS is a place full of connections. At ICMS I made wonderful friends who I still see today. We share the same passion for success and formed a special bond I don't think would have been possible at a larger university. My advice is to be open to the new opportunities ICMS presents you with and get involved in the different networks.

Buying, selling, valuing and negotiating – markets and people move fast in real estate and property managers need to have resourcefulness and business acumen to stay ahead. At ICMS we train you to think like a property specialist. Working with real-world scenarios you'll learn how to make informed business decisions, thinking strategically to predict the movements of industry.

SUBJECT SNAPSHOT

Building Construction

Property managers need to be the experts about buildings and developments. They may not be working as engineers, but they need to know how buildings are constructed, the types of materials and building techniques used, and how to analyse plans and understand contracts. From development proposals to project managing a major development, you will learn the essentials in building construction. You will also learn the jargon and negotiation skills for working with builders, tradesmen, architects, draftsmen, town planners and government agencies.

Property Investment and Finance

Property development involves investment and a sound knowledge of financial principles. It can be the difference between a development triumph that is a commercial success, and one that ends up losing money. Your financial plan will help you answer questions like: Should I renovate or demolish and rebuild? Should I seek out other investors? Is this project financially viable? Any property development project will require financing and this subject will introduce you to the essential financial concepts you'll need.

Commercial Valuation

Commercial property values can be influenced by location, size, expenses, and leasing revenue just to name a few. You will learn how commercial valuation professionals research and report on the value of a commercial property. You will develop your knowledge further when you examine the commercial mediation and arbitration procedures that can be a part of the commercial valuation process. You will investigate the best strategies for performance and analyse commercial valuations that may be used for financial reporting, insurance, litigation, tax or sales.

YOUR FUTURE

Property managers are leaders in the business of buildings – from property acquisition and development, to use and maintenance, marketing and finance, and valuation and sales. Property management has become a global industry with a shortage of qualified professionals for many key roles. At ICMS we are the management specialists, training you for an international career as a property management leader.

When you graduate with a Bachelor of Property (Development, Investment and Valuation) your industry experience and blend of practical and management training will see you ready for an impressive career in property.

Positions include:

- Facilities Manager
- Strata Manager
- Business Manager
- Portfolio Manager (Corporate)

Professional sports management is a multi-billion dollar industry. Whether you are interested in managing an individual athlete, sporting team or organisation, your ICMS Bachelor of Sports Management will train you to be a leading sports management professional.

SUBJECT SNAPSHOT

Contemporary Health Issues

Constant striving to improve puts great strain on an athlete's body and mind. New drugs, treatments, equipment, techniques and laws of the game, bring many new problems along with their intended improvements. In Contemporary Health Issues you will learn to identify these changes and to make management decisions when dealing with them.

Sports Psychology Health and Wellbeing

The psychology and wellbeing of an athlete can have a significant impact on their sporting performance. Understanding how sports psychology can influence the mental focus, confidence, injury recovery and mental and physical health of an athlete can make a big difference to how you work with them as a manager. In Sports Psychology Health and Wellbeing you will develop your understanding of the core principles of sports psychology. You will learn to identify an athlete with a sports-related psychology issue and write an intervention program to improve their wellbeing.

Player and Performance Management

A skilled sports manager must know how to motivate their athlete or team to strive for peak performance. Regular performance management techniques such as behavioural contracts and practical goal setting help the athlete and manager to each understand their professional expectations. From athlete assessment to setting long term goals, you will learn how to manage and maximise the performance of athletes and teams.

YOUR FUTURE

When you are working in an industry that is loved by millions it is important that you have the resilience, confidence and determination to stay level-headed when making management decisions. Practical experience and in-depth business and industry knowledge is essential when representing an athlete, team or organisation. Sports managers must be skilled all-rounders who can manage media pressure, assist in negotiations between owners and players of professional sports teams, provide motivational support to athletes, understand the legal implications of a contract, and ensure that their clients are getting the performance support they need to keep them competing at the highest level.

At ICMS we are in the business of training extraordinary sports managers. Our graduates are experts in sports management principles, are technically skilled, and have a working experience of the industry. Our Bachelor of Sports Management graduates are trained to be professional leaders.

Positions include:

- Player or Team Manager
- Sports Marketing Manager
- Facilities Management
- Fitness Manager
- Merchandising Manager
- Sports Promotion and Sponsorship Manager
- Events Manager
- Sports Media Manager

Amy Edward

Bachelor of Sports Management, 2016
Events and Hospitality Coordinator, Sydney Swans Football Club

ICMS alumni Amy Edwards made such a good impression during her internship that she now works full-time in events at the Sydney Swans Football Club.

What is your current role? Outline your professional experience.

I am an Events and Hospitality Coordinator for the Sydney Swans Football Club. In this role I take care of Corporate Hospitality clients for both match days and events. I have been at the Swans full-time since January 2015.

The Sydney Swans is a professional Australian rules football club, based in Sydney, which plays in the Australian Football League.

What career achievements are you especially proud of?

While working as a waitress at a Mexican restaurant I met the General Manager of match day and events for the Sydney Swans. I was fortunate enough to leave an impression where I was offered an internship which I could use as my industry experience. Through hard work and determination I was offered a full-time role at the Swans.

After a year of successfully executing events and match days I was offered a promotion. I now look after all Corporate VIPs on match days and have my own events which I look after from conception to execution.

How has your ICMS degree contributed to you achieving your professional goals?

Having studied Sports Management I have been able to come straight into the sporting world with a good understanding of match day activations, sports law and sports marketing. I have been able to find my confidence a lot quicker than if I had not studied this course.

What were the major contributing factors to your decision to study at ICMS?

ICMS took into consideration other attributes aside from grades for course selection. This created an instant environment of acceptance.

ICMS allows students to be creative, to live and study in an amazing location, all whilst gaining invaluable industry experience.

What were your highlights during your time at ICMS?

A highlight of my time at ICMS was being a part of the ICMS netball team in the first year where ICMS students participated in the Eastern University Games. This was a great way to emphasise how much the college has to offer and to show how it is developing. I also lived on campus for two terms where I met some lifelong friends.

What would be your advice to someone considering studying at ICMS?

From my own personal experience, ICMS provided me with the flexibility to do my course how I wanted to, in the time frame I wanted to, while looking out over Manly beach and, best of all, you get industry experience. It's a no brainer!

What is the best thing about working in your industry?

I work in a very fast-paced environment where no match day or event is the same. There are lots of once-in-a-lifetime opportunities and memorable moments that we get to be a part of.

Some of the best events in the world are sporting events. I get to work with amazing people and watch the footy!

Intern like a BOSS

A practical way to strengthen your skills in your field of study, structured as part of your degree as a stepping stone to get you the job after you graduate.

Industry training is an important part of the ICMS experience. As an ICMS student, our industry connections are your industry connections. We recognise that graduates need more than a qualification to be competitive in a challenging job market.

Throughout your degree you will have practical opportunities to strengthen your skills in your field of study. This is your opportunity to showcase your professional skills. For many of our graduates this experience introduces them to their future employers.

The ICMS student experience is like no other. We provide the best industry training program in Australia. It's a structured part of your degree and can provide a foundation for your final subjects with us.

Industry training is also the ideal environment for learning. Theory is important, it provides you with the fundamentals and context of your field of study. But theory is nothing without professional experience, where you can apply your knowledge to a real-world context. Not only will this make you more employable, it will also help to reinforce all that you have learnt in the classroom.

How does it work?

We have an impressive network of industry partners. These leading companies provide invaluable industry insight and experience to help shape your qualifications and ensure they are in line with industry best practice. When you study with us you also learn directly from industry with on-site visits and guest lectures from the best in the business.

There are two stages in our industry training program:

Stage 1: Pre-Placement Program

During your first year of study you will undertake a Pre-Placement Program. You will prepare a resume, practise interview techniques and gain the necessary knowledge and skills to secure your placement. The Pre-Placement Program is delivered by our team of industry training consultants who provide coaching and guidance. This valuable experience will prepare you for your placement and equip you with skills for future employment.

Stage 2: Industry Training Placement

You will complete your industry placement with one of our industry partners. There are no college fees during your industry training period as you will be on placement with one of our prestigious ICMS industry partners. This is an opportunity to demonstrate the skills and knowledge you have learnt at ICMS, gain valuable contacts in your chosen field of study as well as gain practical "real world" experience that enhances your career.

It takes more than studying academic subjects to succeed in today's competitive job market, a reality embraced by the International College of Management Sydney (ICMS) with 100% of students gaining work experience before they graduate.

Alongside the challenging academic curriculum, the 6 to 9 month work placement program is an integral component of every ICMS course and degree. All students have the opportunity to learn the key requirements of their chosen career focus area in the actual engine room of industry.

Real life work experience translates into real life success for ICMS graduates, almost 90% of whom graduate with a job in their chosen field (ICMS internal survey). This outcome can be directly tied to more than 1000 industry partners aligned with the College and its career-focused curriculum.

"Our industry contacts are your industry contacts," ICMS Founder and President Darryl Courtney-O'Connor tells students. Owing to the depth and breadth of the industry partners with whom ICMS collaborates, students can find a placement that truly suits them.

ICMS places such a premium on industry placements because this experience offers students an inside track to a job in their chosen profession. It's a win-win-win scenario, for the students, the industry partners and for ICMS itself.

"ICMS puts student outcomes as paramount as they are the key to our reputation," Courtney-O'Connor said.

The ICMS graduate employment rate is better than the top 2 QS ranked Australian Universities. The latest QILT (Quality Indicators for Learning and Teaching) survey showed that more than three quarters of ICMS students have a full time job within four months of graduation. (QILT) ICMS believes that it is the quality of the theory taught in the castle on the hill in Manly, combined with the compulsory work placement students undertake as part of their degree, that results in ICMS students getting such good outcomes in the job market.

Spending time in corporate corridors gives students the practical experience they need to succeed after graduation. Students have the opportunity to practise the theories taught in the classroom, and add value to the work environment in which they are placed.

Mikey Foley from Ubisoft said "the company had been working with ICMS students for a while now, and the passion of the students shone through in their work placement. This passion and energy can be channelled and used by the company for its own benefit. It's really nice to be their introduction to the working world and to help them along the way."

The dual approach of working and doing clearly underpins the success of ICMS graduates.

For example, a training placement at the Reserve Bank of Australia while at ICMS kickstarted Property Management graduate Chakyl Camal's career in property. "I gained valuable experience in facilities management, engaging with stakeholders and managing projects," he said.

Bachelor of Sports Management student Gemma Allen asserts that her ICMS industry experience working in Membership and Ticketing at the Australian Rugby Union made it easier for her to gain a similar role at the Wests Tigers Rugby League Club within months of graduating.

Alicia Budihardja owns her own business in Bali. She said her ICMS industry placement at the Sheraton on the Park in Sydney was key in giving her a greater understanding of what it took to understand a client and deliver what they wanted. "For me it was a great experience. It was a first, true taste of what the hospitality industry was like."

And working at the Australian Bridal Service (ABS) during her industry placement helped Events Management student Sarah Manefield discover where her strengths and talents lie, so she can pursue them right after graduating.

"Industry training has helped me work out where I want to head in my career ... I discovered I want to work in the operations and logistics side as I like to organise and improve efficiency," Manefield said.

over 1000 Industry Partners

Over the past five years, the International College of Management, Sydney (ICMS) has worked with over 1000 industry partners, a milestone that places ICMS at the forefront of career-focused higher education in Australia.

ICMS is located on the Northern Beaches, NSW, just outside Sydney, but work experience through industry partners can take students abroad. Long term partner, Walt Disney World Resort in Florida has hosted 58 students over the years.

Closer to home, Northern Beaches Council has hosted 12 students, Lakeba Group - 24 students and Novotel Sydney Manly Pacific - 30 students.

"Reaching this milestone speaks volumes about how serious we are about working with industry partners to ensure our students are leaders in their fields and highly employable," ICMS CEO and President Dr Dominic Szambowski said.

"Thank you to all our industry partners over the years for partnering with us as we shape the leaders of tomorrow. We appreciate your support, your investment in our students and your willingness to mentor within your organisations."

ICMS offers university-level degrees in disciplines ranging from sports management and international tourism to hospitality, events and property management.

With industry partners crossing the spectrum from global events agency Clevents, the worlds largest commercial real estate and investment company, CBRE to the Sydney

International Convention Centre (ICC), the Football Federation Australia (FFA) and Sydney based Australian Rules Football team, GWS Giants, ICMS students are given the opportunity to be at the coalface of the industry of their chosen discipline.

Industry partners, both in Australia and abroad, offer ICMS students the opportunity to complete the work integrated learning component built into each degree. The ICMS Industry Training placement entails working for up to 1200 hours (approximately nine months full-time) for undergraduate degree students. This is an opportunity for students to prepare for their future professional career by gaining relevant experience in their chosen industry, learning skills required and gaining valuable contacts and networks.

For many students, these internships translate into employment post-graduation, with almost 90% of ICMS students employed in their field before they graduate. There are over 1000 industry partners on the ICMS database, and in each period of work placement, ICMS works with over 100 industry partners.

There are also a number of industry partners with ICMS alumni at the forefront of the organisation, a fantastic scenario of past students giving current students the opportunity to take their first steps up the ladder of their chosen career. ICMS alumnus Alejandro Jara, founder of Black & White Waiters, offers an annual scholarship opportunity to current hospitality or events management students.

10 TIPS to make graduates more EMPLOYABLE

As Australia's leader of career-focused education, ICMS ensures graduate employability and work integrated learning is a focal point of our curriculum. From day one, students are encouraged and inspired to dream big and explore all opportunities available to them.

This philosophy is paramount in ensuring ICMS has one of the highest graduate employment rates in Australia, with almost 90% of our students graduating with a job in their field. ICMS is also ranked number one for Bachelor of Event Management and Bachelor of Hospitality Management in Australia, based on the longest continuous industry placement, student professionalism, work-ready students and our industry training team's customer care.*

Improving your employability skills will help you graduate with the best prospect of securing a job in your field of study. Combine these tips with what you learn in the classroom, and you might just find yourself ahead of the pack when you graduate:

1. Work experience: When you study at ICMS, industry experience is a requirement of your qualification. Graduates are able to highlight their practical experience giving them the makings of a fantastic resume. Industry experience is the most effective way to develop the skills you will need to succeed in your professional life.

2. The right experience: Students are encouraged to embrace volunteer opportunities and to obtain a casual job gaining valuable experience in the workplace. These skills along with your industry training in your chosen field is a winning combination. Make sure the experience you have aligns with your future career goals. Remember you may need to start at the bottom of the ladder you want to climb.

3. Communication is key: Emails, presentations, social media posts, monthly reports – writing effectively and for your target audience is a skill that needs to be developed. How you write is critical in communicating in the workplace and is a reflection of you as a professional. Learn to use the appropriate tone and terminology in all communication.

4. The art of diplomacy: Treat others how they want to be treated, be respectful and appreciate other opinions.

5. Find your own voice and make it heard: Our smaller class sizes with a focus on presentations and group assessments will develop your confidence in addressing others. Whether speaking potential clients, contributing in a team meeting or pitching an impressive idea, ICMS will give you the tools to build that confidence.

6. Get connected: In a digitally connected world, you must be comfortable with using new technologies. Upskill in social media, know your Snapchat from your Facebook and Instagram – not just as a user, but also as a generator. As for basic office software, be the employee that knows the shortcuts and how to use programs effectively.

7. Money management: Even if your particular role doesn't call for an intimate knowledge of the economy, finances or budgets, be knowledgeable in these areas: it will set you apart from the rest of the pack.

8. Networking is crucial: Broaden your network, embrace connections both professionally and personally. At ICMS you will make lifelong friends, local and international connections. Remember: although creating these networks and your social media presence can keep you connected, it also allows others access to your past interactions. Therefore, "don't burn your bridges".

9. Finding the answer: There are no limits to what you can achieve if you don't stop learning. Technology allows us access to readily available information instantaneously. If you don't know something, don't be scared to ask.

10. Thicken your skin: An expert in anything was once a beginner. Accept new challenges where you may make mistakes. Learn to be resilient and accept constructive criticism. The CEO of a company started somewhere, and often the greatest business success stories were created where hard lessons were learnt.

Choosing to study at ICMS and gaining valuable industry experience will help you kick-start your career and stand out from the crowd. Industry experience is part of all ICMS qualifications and our industry partners and faculty embrace these tips, holding them front and centre when engaging with ICMS students.

your support network

The ICMS community prides itself on being more personal than larger universities. We want you to succeed so we support you with an extensive range of services and facilities.

Academic Support Services

ICMS offers a wide variety of academic support services for students. Our Student Success Centre (SSC) has academic advisers who will help you to develop your academic skills and prepare you for the cultural change to tertiary student life. It has a specialised ESL advisor to help support students and a numeracy adviser who offers support in numeracy subjects. The SSC is open from Monday to Friday every week of the ICMS trimester. In addition, the SSC also provides individual support and provisions for students with special academic needs.

We can assist you with effective study and exam preparation techniques, time and stress management, academic writing, oral presentations, English language support (written, spoken and comprehension) Learning support can help you to reach your full academic potential.

The SSC also runs a Peer Assisted Learning Service (PALS). High performing students assist others in specific areas of their studies. Be it helping a student to grasp a key concept or steering them in the right academic direction, our PALS mentors give up their time voluntarily to ensure students succeed at ICMS.

Library – Pollard Resource Centre

The Pollard Resource Centre is home to your ICMS library. It is equipped with computers, books, journals and audio visual materials. Quiet areas and rooms dedicated to group study and meetings are also located in the Centre. Our highspeed printer/photocopier/scanner is available for student use.

Most importantly the library provides access to the College's impressive collection of electronic resources, including hundreds of thousands of e-book and e-journal titles from internationally respected publishers. Our friendly library staff will help you to use these resources efficiently for your assignments. During trimesters the library opening hours are Monday to Thursday from 8am to 8pm and Friday 8am to 5pm. The library is also open on Saturday and Sunday from 1pm to 5pm.

Personal Support

ICMS remains committed to the physical and emotional health and well-being of our students. We all need help from time to time. The ICMS Wellness Team provides appropriate guidance and personal support to our students if and when it is needed. If you feel overwhelmed at any time, or a personal problem arises, you can speak to our Wellness Team who can help you or guide you in finding appropriate help.

Student Representative Council (SRC)

The Student Representative Council (SRC) strives to improve and maintain the quality of student life for the entire student body. The SRC is elected by peers and acts as an advocate for the student body with the SRC President holding a position on the Learning and Teaching Committee.

The SRC also works with our Student Experience Team to organise a range of social activities, including major events such as our College Icebreaker. Throughout ICMS trimesters, the SRC also holds regular events for students to enjoy.

Residential Leaders

Our Resident Leaders (RLs) are senior student leaders who live on campus and provide support to all ICMS students throughout their time at ICMS. The RLs are trained to offer support and advice on a range of day to day matters, including emotional support, student comfort, safety and behaviour. They have undergone training to provide mental and physical first aid and emergency response. They are also your student voice and can help you to resolve any issues about student life on campus.

Safety and Security

ICMS is committed to providing a safe campus for students. Our managers on duty are available 24 hours a day and are trained in first aid. ICMS also has specific first aid staffers and offers a free shuttle bus that runs to and from Manly.

Facilities

Facilities on the Northern Beaches campus include computer laboratories, tennis and basketball courts, café, bar, and a restaurant open to the public called the Grand Dining Room. Free wireless internet is available throughout the buildings of ICMS including classrooms and accommodation.

ICMS draws students from all over the world attracted by our reputation as a vibrant social community with incredible student experiences.

Student Clubs and Associations

There is so much to get involved in at ICMS and there is a club or association for everyone. You can even start your own club or association on campus, just visit the Student Experience Team to discuss your idea. Some of our current clubs and associations include:

- Asian Students Association
- Scandinavian Students Association
- ARK - Act of Random Kindness Association
- Living Water (Inter-Denominational Christian Group)

- Melody, ICMS Music Club
- Green Team
- Asian students association

Sport at ICMS

Whether you're into rugby, netball, futsal, basketball, beach volleyball, or just general fitness, you can become involved in sport and fitness programs at ICMS. We have sporting teams representing ICMS in internal and external tournaments. Our Student Experience Team support all our sports teams and if there's not one that meets your needs, find friends and form your own! Other activities on campus include tennis, tae kwon do, yoga, zumba and boot camp. Manly is also a paradise for outdoor activities and we organise weekend activities such as surf camp trips, snorkelling, kayaking, stand-up paddle boarding, canoeing, horse riding, surf lessons and bushwalks all within a short distance from the ICMS campus.

Coots Collegial Club (CCC)

The Coots Collegial Club (CCC), located in Kelly House, is a fantastic area for students to meet and unwind. Major college parties and themed events are hosted here throughout trimesters including our icebreaker, SRC party, karaoke and trivia night, and sports viewing events such as the Melbourne Cup and other sports matches. CCC is open for leisure and games most days and features Foxtel TV, foosball table, table tennis table and a pool table.

Orientation Week*

Your first week at ICMS begins with Orientation Week (O-Week). During this action-packed week, you will be introduced to the ICMS community and also to life in Manly. You will learn about the academic side of things, have fun and meet new people who will be sharing your ICMS experience with you.

*Not all intakes have a full week of orientation.

These are just a few of the things you'll do in O-Week:

- Enrol in your classes and get your timetable.
- Meet your new classmates.
- Tour the College and Manly.
- Attend a surf safety course at Manly Beach.
- Catch the ferry to Sydney for a city tour.
- Attend the Welcome Cocktail Party and Manly night life induction.
- Enjoy Campus Day, full of fun activities such as tug-o-war.

your place

Where to live in Sydney

Manly and the surrounding Northern Beaches represent some of the most desirable neighbourhoods in Sydney. Students have a variety of accommodation options available, ranging from living on campus to finding lodging off campus either alone or in a shared house with classmates. The Sydney rental market is highly competitive, so we suggest you start thinking about what type of accommodation will best suit your needs as soon as possible.

On-campus accommodation

Campus living is an ideal way to make the most of our spectacular ICMS location. Students who live on campus enjoy a fantastic lifestyle with all meals provided, wireless internet, 24 hour access to computer labs, as well as the luxury of being in close proximity to classes, and the world-famous Manly Beach. Rooms are equipped with a desk, wardrobe, heating and wireless internet. All linen is provided and rooms are dusted and vacuumed once a week.

Each floor is equipped with a kitchenette, common showers, toilets and ironing facilities. You will also receive residential support from the Resident Assistants, senior ICMS student leaders who live on campus.

You will have the choice of a single, double or triple dormitory room, depending on your budget, residential preference and availability. Shared rooms are single sex but are allocated randomly for cultural experience.

On campus accommodation is very popular and places fill up quickly for the 230 beds available. It is recommended that you apply for a place as soon as possible.

Study Intensive Residential Floor

Prefer living on a floor where other students share the same study focus and interests?

Then you should consider ICMS Study Intensive Residential Floor. Beyond living with others who have something in common with you, there are many additional benefits. Students can enjoy the following: small and quiet accommodation floor, zero alcohol tolerance, students with same major interests. This community environment is a popular offering to a limited number of our residents. Although study-intensive floors remain lively and fun places to live, residents who select these floors generally place a greater focus on their academics. Study-intensive floors are present to help you manage your environment in ways that help facilitate effective study habits.

For more information visit icms.edu.au/accommodation

On-campus accommodation

The fees for on-campus accommodation are as follows.

Room Type	Undergraduate Per Trimester Cost (Based on 13 week trimester)	Postgraduate Per Trimester Cost (Based on 18 week trimester)
Single	$5,920	$8,200
Single Water View	$6,240	$8,640
Twin/ Double	$5,320	$7,370
Triple/ Quad	$5,000	$6,920

Accommodation in Manly and surrounding suburbs

Manly is a vibrant cosmopolitan centre and as such there is a large demand for temporary accommodation, particularly in the summer months. Suburbs located close to Manly include Dee Why, Freshwater, Manly Vale, Balgowlah, Brookvale, Seaforth and Fairlight. Alternatively you could live in the city centre, Manly is only a 17-minute fast ferry ride from Sydney city.

Options for accommodation include shared accommodation where you pay for a room in an apartment/house or renting your own place. When renting your own place, most landlords require a 12 month lease, although six month contracts can sometimes be found. Of course there are also numerous hotels, motels, serviced apartments, furnished accommodation and backpacker style accommodation available.

When searching for accommodation, remember that many rental properties require an upfront bond of one to two months rental fees to cover any damages during your stay. You may also be required to provide references to show you are an ideal tenant/flatmate.

Being an elite athlete or performer should not impact your chances of University level study. We know you are not defined by your ATAR. Let us take that into consideration with your application'

LEADERSHIP ENTRY PROGRAM

Our Leadership Entry Program offers students who have demonstrated significant leadership in their school and/or community, a place at ICMS based on their academic achievement, leadership experience and aspirations, and a nomination from their school.

More details can be found on the ICMS website.

APPLYING TO ICMS AS A DOMESTIC STUDENT

YOUR STEP-BY-STEP APPLICATION GUIDE

Applying to study at ICMS as a domestic student means you are an Australian citizen, permanent resident, or a New Zealand citizen. You can apply directly to ICMS or through the Universities Admission Centre (UAC).

- 1 Choose your degree
Find out which of our ICMS degrees are the right fit for you. Read the degree descriptions in this prospectus (starting from page 20). Consider your interests, career goals, and the level of qualification you wish to attain.
- 2 Apply to ICMS - Complete and submit the application form on page 111. Alternatively, you can apply online at www.icms.edu.au/apply
- 3 Accept your offer
After we assess your application and issue you an official Letter of Offer you need to accept to secure your place at ICMS. Simply follow the instructions in your offer pack.
- 4 Book your accommodation
If you intend to live on campus at ICMS you'll need to book a room. Make your online booking early as places are limited at www.icms.edu.au/accommodation
- 5 Come to Orientation Week and enrol in classes
Welcome to ICMS! Now you're ready to start life as an ICMS student. Come along to Orientation Week, enrol in your classes, explore the campus, meet your classmates and enjoy all the fun.

WHEN TO APPLY

ICMS has three trimesters for undergraduate studies per year (February, May and September) and two semesters for Postgraduate studies per year (February and July). Late applications are accepted, however places at ICMS are limited.

To apply through the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC) you need to adhere to its application deadlines. 2019 UAC applications will open in early August 2018. Visit www.uac.edu.au for more info.

ICMS High Academic Places (HAP) (February intake only)

Hard work deserves to be rewarded so our High Academic Places will mean that your study at ICMS will be at a cost more comparable to a Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP). These places are awarded on the basis of application interview and ATAR (or equivalent).

Only UAC applicants will be considered for an ICMS High Academic Place. Students who are not offered a High Academic Place are eligible for direct entry or alternative entry.

We recommend you apply both directly and through UAC.

PATHWAYS TO ICMS

If you fall short of ICMS entry requirements you may be offered an alternative entry pathway through Aspire Institute. For more information refer to page 70 or visit www.aspire.edu.au

EARLY ENTRY

Our Early Entry Scheme is designed for high-achieving HSC students who want to secure a place at ICMS before sitting the HSC exams.

To be eligible, you need to demonstrate that you have a strong academic record and the potential to be an outstanding ICMS student through your passion and commitment for a career in one of the areas of study we offer: Business Management, Event Management, Hospitality Management, International Tourism, Marketing and New Media Management, Entrepreneurship, Property Development, Retail Marketing Sports Management, Fashion and Global Brand Management and Accounting

ELITE ATHLETE AND PERFORMER ENTRY PATHWAY

Being an elite athlete or performer should not impact your chances of University level study. We know you are not defined by your ATAR. Let us take that into consideration with your application'

LEADERSHIP ENTRY PROGRAM

Our Leadership Entry Program offers students who have demonstrated significant leadership in their school and/or community, a place at ICMS based on their academic achievement, leadership experience and aspirations, and a nomination from their school.

More details can be found on the ICMS website.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

ICMS.EDU.AU/ENTRY

ACADEMIC ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

The minimum academic entry requirements for all ICMS degrees are detailed in the academic entry requirements section of the ICMS website. The most recent academic entry requirements by country are listed on the ICMS website at www.icms.edu.au/entry

Applicants who have not completed 12 years of formal education may apply for entry into a Bachelor degree if they meet specific requirements as detailed on the ICMS website. Applicants must also meet the relevant English language requirements.

Entry Pathways

ICMS offers several admission pathways and a holistic approach to assessing applicants including the opportunity of an interview combined with consideration of a recognised certificate, qualifications or at least 12 months of full time paid work experience in an area. Applicants applying through the University Admissions Centre (UAC) will find admission requirement details on the UAC website at www.uac.edu.au

Pathways to ICMS

Aspire Institute provides pathways into most qualifications at ICMS. Information on these opportunities and articulation arrangements are available on page 70.

Advanced Standing

ICMS supports the Australian Qualifications Framework with the objective of facilitating pathways to, and through, formal qualifications. In support of this objective all academic studies and prior learning will be taken into consideration when applying to ICMS.

Applicants who can demonstrate successful completion of equivalent subjects at a recognised institution may be eligible for credit or exemptions when studying at ICMS. For further details, please refer to the recognition of prior learning section of the ICMS handbook at: icms.edu.au/handbook

ENGLISH LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

For entry into an ICMS Bachelor degree, the following English language requirements apply. If you do not meet the English language proficiency requirements, pathway options are available through the Aspire Institute – see page 70 for more information.

- IELTS (academic): Overall score of 6.0, writing 5.5, speaking 5.5.
- TOEFL i-BT: Overall score of 69, writing 19, speaking 17.

For additional information about other English language proficiencies accepted please visit www.icms.edu.au

International students

International students are required to pay the tuition fee deposit of $13,200 for all Bachelor degrees or $13,400 for Postgraduate studies. This deposit is deducted from the first trimester tuition fee. International students are also required to arrange health insurance. All other college-related expenses such as text books and student experience activities are charged separately.

International students are required to have health insurance during their stay in Australia. The college can arrange your Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) if requested. If you are a student from Norway or Sweden, you do not require OSHC as cover is provided by your national health schemes. You must show proof of official health insurance cover from your home government provider. Your local representative will be able to provide more details.

Study abroad students

The fee for students coming to ICMS on a study abroad package is undergraduate $13,200 and postgraduate $13,400 for each trimester. This includes the tuition fees for four subjects. All college-related expenses such as textbooks are charged separately.

Domestic students

If you are an Australian citizen, you are eligible for FEE-HELP for your Bachelor degree at ICMS. These Australian government loan schemes allow you to defer all or part of your tuition fees and student amenities fee. More information is available at www.studyassist.gov.au

All college-related expenses such as textbooks are charged separately.

Note: Fees are for the 2019 calendar year and are expressed in Australian dollars. Tuition fees are for programs delivered during 2019 and will expire on 31 December 2019. Tuition fees are reviewed annually and are subject to change. Fees are payable prior to each trimester.
